Customer Reviews

This is a challenging read. There are several authors lending their insights into specific movies that Hitch made throughout his career. Deutelbaum & Paogue tie them together well. If you are looking for a book more about the filmmaker himself, then try Patrick McGilligan's book, "Alfred Hitchcock: A Life in Darkness and Light." It is an exhaustive book, but an easier read. And, it covers the same films. The articles in D&P are more analytical of each movie. This book does not cover every movie Hitch made, but does include the more popular ones.

Used for a film class; not a lot of information is within these pages but they will give you a good start to finding out more about Hitchcock and his films.

An interesting read for Hitchcock fans.

Perfect for classroom use--or just as a way to dig deeper into Hitchcock's films if you're a fan. Highly recommended.
