Customer Reviews

First and foremost, most Emanuel outlines are amazing if keyed to your casebook. This means the supplement follows along with your casebook and cases. This supplement has a short outline at the beginning and then goes more in depth explaining the topics touched on in the case book, with some checklist/issue spotting tips at the end of each chapter and some Q&A. Finally it has a few hypos and practice exams at the end. I first used an Emanuel not keyed to my text book, but switched when I started using a keyed one for Civ Pro. I will explain the supplements I used and how I studied for class and the final. This was by far the best professor I have ever had, using hypos and working through them in class frequently. She taught like many of the supplements, which is why I relied on them less here than in other classes. In the first semester I read
