A History Of Tobago (Classic Reprint)

Synopsis

Tobago, 9th May, 1866, My Dear Sir, It is with no common feelings that I avail myself, after some lapse of time, of your kind permission to dedicate my History of Tobago to you. While writing this I cannot but think of the very happy days spent in your society while you administered the Government here; and I cannot but be grateful for the support I received from you in the discharge of my public duties, and for the assistance kindly afforded me in the preparation of the following sheets. ... With continued feelings of respect and esteem, I remain, My Dear Sir, Yours very faithfully, H. I. WOODCOCK. To James (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
