Customer Reviews

This entire book is simply too basic to be of much value--unless you need someone to tell you where the coins go into the machine. The content struck me as an intro (and advertisement) for the more "advanced" books advertised on the last page--namely the playing strategies you probably thought you were getting this round. There's better information on the web.

I agree with the other reviewer... this is nothing more than an ad for the more "advanced books" the author sells. Save your money. This is garbage.

Very thin. Don't buy this book. There are too many other good video poker books out there to waste a cent on this book. I would suggest something from John Grochowski.

Small book picked up the Gambler's bookshop in Vegas to give a few tips for the occasional bit of recreational gambling while there.
