Customer Reviews

I was required to purchase this book for a Gender & Law class that I took as an undergraduate, and I am glad I did as it has remained on my bookshelf and in frequent use ever since. This text is insightful, complex, and diverse. the author/editors draw on a mix of case law and rulings, legal interpretations, and feminist theory to frame legal issues impacting women and women's rights in dynamic and nuanced ways. They don't provide "answers"- they help the reader to develop INSIGHT into the construction and contestation of gender through law. Mae sure that you don't skip the "Notes" sections- these contain tremendously interesting notes on further cases and excellent discussion questions!Two thumbs most enthusiastically up:)
