Customer Reviews

I'm going to need a part two or something. It was just enough drama tho keep you going. I kind of figure that out about Amad, but I want sure. I need to know who shot him or have the kids going to the same school or something. The wife got a feeling but not sure..I didn't put my Kindle down

I went to school with the author so I had to read! This book is amazing, there were times while reading it that my mouth dropped! So many surprises that kept me pulled in. I'm an avid reader so it felt really good to finally read a book worth writing a review for! I would definitely recommend this book. I pray that there is a sequel!

OMG, I could put this book down. It is written very well. I feel like there should be a part two, telling his side of the story. So happy Adana had her happy ending but also sad for Gina too. Overall great read. I will definitely read over and over.

This was a great read. Adulterated is a novel that you cannot put down until you are done. The setting is so relevant to the times in which we live yet so indicative of the many 2nd chances afforded so many of us.

I would recommend this book! It was written well and the plot flowed. The story was realistic and relevant to on going issues in today's culture. I didn't expect the ending to happen the way it did!

Fantastic story could not put the book down. Also the content is very relevant to events happening right now. The short film is great too please check it out on Youtube.

The build up was great but once the plot was exposed the rest of the book was pretty predictable. Overall it was an interesting read and held my attention.

Some parts little predictable but overall great story line. A few twists which kept it interesting. I liked how she showed both sides of the love story.
